STREET CARS TO OGDEN CANYON

Rapid Transit Extension to Sanitarium Now Completed-Regular Service Begins Sunday.

WILL SELL UNUSED BUILDINGS

School Board Has no Further Use for Broom's Bench and Chipps' Schoolhouses.

Ogden, June 30 .- The extension of the Ogden Rapid Transit company's car line to the mouth of Ogden canyon and the sanitarium has been completed, and the first trip to be made over the route will be run this afternoon, when a complimentary ride will be given the business and newspaper men of the city, and it is expected the regular service will begin tomorrow morning at

The company has decided to make the fare to the canyon from any part of its lines but 5 cents, or 10 cents for the round trip, with a 30 minute ser, This will no doubt be one of the most popular lines in the city, as it af-fords a very pleasant ride along the Ogden river, with some good scenery, providing easy access to the mouth of ogden canyon, one of the grandest can-yons in the country. Not alone should this route be popular for local passed-ger traffic, but hundreds of tourlsts will avail themselves of the ride to the canyon in order to get a view of the magnificent scenery, while they are waiting between trains. They will also have an opportunity to visit the saniarlum, which is one of the best health bathing places in the west, having th warm mineral water which possesses exceptional medicinal properties. Just when the company will extend its line through the canyon is uncertain.

MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD.

Decides to Sell Sites and Buildings at Broom's Bench and Chipps'.

Ogden, June 30 .- At a meeting of the board of education held last evening the board decided to sell the school sites and buildings at Broom's Bench and Chipps, as the same are not used for school purposes. Asael Farr was appointed to negotiate the sales. The matter of having the annual re-port printed was referred to the supply

The building committee reported the work on the Lewis school as progress-ing very slowly, on account of the con-tractor being unable to get a sufficient supply of the kind of stone desired.

The clerk was instructed to renew the contract with the Remington Typowriter company for machines to be used in the schools during the coming year, When J. E. Retherford left the school without fulfilling his contract, and giving the board sufficient notice, they lecided to hold back $50 of his salary At the meeting last evening the differences were adjusted by the board agreeing to pay him $35 if he will receipt in

The finance committee reported having received $73.11 from all sources dur-ing the past week. The resignation of Miss Inez Kitchen was accepted. Henry De Bry was appointed janitor at the Madison school during the summer at a salary of $10 per month. Eight applireceived, and ordered filed.

POLICE COURT BUSINESS. Cases of Many Delinquents Heard by Judge Murphy.

Ogden, June 30 .- Judge Murphy had a heavy police grind yesterday. At a Ogden City against John Lewis and John Lynch, the two prisoners who brually assaulted Guard Thomas Lever the corridor of the city jall, came on for itial. The prisoners both entered a lea of not guilty. The evidence of Mr. Lever, Cificer Layne, who was bitten on the fingers by Lynch; Sergeants Pining that as Mr. Lever entered the cor idor to have some cleaning up done or the prisoners, they jumped on him and kicked him in the face. The court found the men guilty as charged an sentenced each one to serve a term of 60 days on the rock pile, with the monition that they must obey the priwhere they were bitten.

A fine of $54 was imposed by the court on Wung Wah, a Chinese gar-dener who lives near the Ogden river bridge, for having given beer to two small boys named Hansen and Poulsen, also for having permitted them to take "pulls" on his opium pipe. He admitted his guilt.

Joseph Carr and a colored woman were up before his honor on a charge of immorality, and were found guilty. Carr will serve 75 days in the city jail and the negress 10 days.

John Miller, who was charged with carelessly shooting a 22 rifle on May 25, near Thirty-second street and Pacific avenue, killing a horse valued at $125 belonging to T. J. Jenkins, was given a hearing. The evidence produced by the prosecution was insufficourt discharged the defendant. Balero Ferado and Ed Bello were found guilty of fighting and disturbing he peace of the residents of Grant avehue Thursday, and were fined $10 each, which they paid. Several drunks and vags were given light sentences.

LADY INJURED IN ROAD ACCI-

Mrs. Cowles, while driving home to Harrisville in a buggy, met with quite serious accident, caused by the horse getting frightened at a box lying in the wagon road. When the horse came close to the box, it lunged to one side, throwing Mrs. Cowles forward against the front of the vehicle, and a blood-vessel in one of her legs was broken, which bled profusely. On her arrival home the flow of blood could not be stopped with ordinary remedies, hence Dr. G. A. Dickson was sent for, and succeded in stopping the bleeding. FRANCIS-LORD ENGAGEMENT.

Miss Elizabeth Francis, sister of Edftor Frank Francis of the Ogden Standard, who for a number of years has been society editor and proofreader on the paper, has tendered her resignawhich goes into effect tonight, and Miss Bertha Stone, a wellknown young schoolteacher, has been appointed to Miss Amelia Robins, who has bee employed as nurse at the Ogden Gen-eral hospital, has left the institution and after a few weeks' rest with her brother, will go to Denver, to marry a former railroad man of this city, There is a bit of romance attached to the prospective marriage. Miss Robins is a prepossessing young lady from Eng-land, who came out here for her health principally. She had been given a good education by her parents, and could have had much better employment so far as wages is concerned about nursing, and to help those who were suffering, hence entered the hospital. While employed at the institurious injuries and was taken to the hos-pital for medical attention. BIG DAM PROJECT.

The Utah Light & Raifway company has not given up all hope of yet secur-ing the proposed dam site at the head of Ogden canyon, and has decided to nake appeal to the next Legislature to rave the law amended which provides that in order to change a public high-way the vote of the freeholders in the district affected must be had. The Light company is desirous of having he law provide that a majority of the veting population of the county will be all that is necessary to change a pubic madway. Local Manager Wade says he does not anticipate that the company will have much trouble in buying out the owners of the several fish hatcheries that have been established in Ogdan valley on sites that the water backed up from the proposed dam would inun-

DEFECTIVE STREET PAVEMENTS.

P. J. Moran, the Salt Lake contractor, was in Ogden yesterday to inspect the Ewenty-fourth street pavement between Washington and Grant avenues, which has not been accepted by the city. In some places the pavement is not as it should be under the contract and is wearing into holes already. It may be that it will have to be resurfaced. The pavement, on Twenty-fifth street and Wall ayenue, which were also guar antecd for five years, have commence: to break in places and will also need jected, and new bids will be called for. Most of the contractors are very busy ver and opened up a correspondence such that with Miss Robins with the result that they will be married next month, and den, and all kinds of materials are very expect to go to England to visit her bigh at the present time
